

FOREST FIRE FIGHT COSTS $7,000 DAILY

Soldiers Are Big Help in Battle With Flames in Northwest.

It is now costing the Government $7,000 per day to fight the forest fires in the Northwest, according to the estimate of the Forestry Bureau here today.

Two new fires at Republic, Wash., and Union, Ore., are causing some apprehension, but Associate Forester Potter said today that he believed the crisis had passed.

The lack of rain, however, and the dry condition of the forests makes the danger of further fires require constant vigilance. Potter hopes with the aid of the army the fires now will soon be in control, but he admitted today that any prediction was apt to be discounted by developments.

Already the fires have surpassed any in the history of the service, but never before was such a large force engaged in fighting them.

PURCHASES GROUND FOR THREE HOUSES

L. E. Breuninger Acquires Belmont Street Property in Northwest Section.

L. E. Breuninger has bought a plot of ground, 60 by 120 feet, on the south side of Belmont street, between Fourth and Fifteenth streets northwest, from Heiskell & McLearn, trustees for W. S. B. McLearn, of London, and other heirs of the F. H. McLearn estate, for $7,200, which he will improve by the erection of three residences.

The property is known as lots 64 and 806, in square 2643. The sale was made through the office of Thomas J. Fisher & Co., Inc.

L. E. Breuninger has started the erection of a large apartment house on the south side of Euclid street northwest, between Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets. The apartment will occupy a plot of ground facing sixty feet on Euclid street and running south 200 feet. For this purpose he has purchased from Heiskell & McLearn two lots, 614 and 1318 Euclid street, for $7,500.

Mr. Breuninger was already in possession of the lot at 1318 Euclid street, and the two additional lots were acquired to give the continuous sixty-foot frontage.

SCOURING CHICAGO TO GUARD HEALTH

Crowds of Men and Boys Gather Rubbish for Removal.

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—Chicago is being scrubbed, scoured, and polished today. It is the official "cleaning-up day," and citizens are co-operating with the health department. Even J. P. Pluvius has his aid. The city last night was visited by a drenching rain and today the atmosphere is clarified and cooler.

Of course, the front steps were cleaned last week for the Knights Templar convalesce, but Health Commissioner Evans says that the back yards and the alleys breed disease, so these were attacked today.

Crowds of men and youngsters, armed with brooms and shovels, were at it bright and early. They invaded the back lots and placed in piles the summer's accumulations of refuse in readiness for the city wagons.

Municipal spring cleaning up has been observed for two years.

"The real cleaning up is done by the householder," said Dr. Evans. "All that we can do is to stir him into action and carry away the collected rubbish."

CATHEDRAL WORKERS HURT BY CAVE-IN

Falling Dirt in Excavation Buried Two Negroes, Breaking Bones.

Buried under a pile of falling dirt, two negroes employed by John F. Joyce & Co., contractors, were seriously hurt this morning, when a bank of one of the excavations for the new Episcopal cathedral of St. Peter and Paul, Wisconsin avenue and Woodley lane, caved in.

The negroes, Edward Johnson, forty-three years old, of 253 Eighth street northwest, and Page Robinson, twenty, of 208 K street northwest, were hurriedly dug out by other workmen, and taken to the Georgetown University Hospital in a police ambulance.

Johnson suffered a broken leg and hip, and Robinson a broken rib and ankle. Both will recover.

PLAN CO-OPERATION IN LAND SERVICES

Settlement of Homestead Claims of Interest to the Departments.

James M. Sheridan, chief of the field division of the General Land Office, D. D. Bronson, of the Forest Service, and R. W. Wilcox, of the office of the Solicitor of the Department of Agriculture, will leave the city Thursday for the West to promote co-operation between the officials in the field of the Land Office and those of the Forest Service in the decision of claims for homestead settlement. Instructions involving hearings and investigations to be made by this trip of Government officials were recently issued by Secretaries Ballinger and Wilson. Among the most important points to be decided is the matter of the coal lands in North and South Dakota, amounting to about 1,000,000 acres, which were recently withdrawn from the public by the President, and have been opened to homestead settlement.

SECRETARY WILSON OBSERVES BIRTHDAY

Negro "Maccabees" Supreme Commander Charged With Insuring Illegally.

Charged with conducting an insurance organization without a license, "Prof." L. Peaks, colored, supreme commander of the National Independent Knights of Maccabees of the World, was arraigned in the Police Court today, but the case was continued until August 21.

Supreme Commander Peaks was arrested by Detective Burlingame upon complaint of Daniel Curry, acting superintendent of insurance at the "Supreme Tent," 423 New York avenue northwest, yesterday afternoon.

Emblems, badges, mottoes in unknown tongues, and swords and crossed spears lent a mysterious appearance to the tent, all of which was seized and will be presented as evidence.

Three Make Complaints.

An investigation of the methods of the National Independent Knights of Maccabees of the World was caused by complaints of Mrs. Elizabeth Davis, street northeast, Mrs. Mary A. Whittle, 1029 Third street northeast, and Walter Love, 1210 Seventh street northwest, concerning delay in the payment of claims.

It was alleged that the claims had been settled in part by the payment of promissory notes. This being a new and novel method of conducting an insurance business Mr. Curry made inquiry which resulted in the appearance of the supreme commander in the Police Court.

Patterned After White Order.

The National Independent Knights of Maccabees of the World is founded after an organization of somewhat similar name, but the two are entirely separate in intent and purpose, according to Mr. Curry.

An investigation of the books in the "Supreme Tent" showed a membership list of over 600 in the District of Columbia, and Maryland.

The amount of insurance collected, according to the records, was 25 cents a month from each member.

SECRETARY WILSON OBSERVES BIRTHDAY

Celebrates Seventy-fifth Anniversary in Iowa—Officials Wire Respects.

James Wilson, Secretary of Agriculture, the long-distance record holder in point of service in a Presidential Cabinet, and the oldest Cabinet officer in the present Administration, is celebrating the seventy-fifth anniversary of his birth today on his farm at Treason, Iowa.

Officials in the Department of Agriculture today joined in a telegram to the aged and active Cabinet officer, congratulating him on his record-breaking achievements and expressing the hope that he would continue to break records indefinitely.

There have been rumors from time to time that President Taft intended to turn over the Department of Agriculture to a younger man, but in the semi-official announcement from Beverly last week of the President's intention to start housecleaning within the Administration, there was no suggestion that Secretary Wilson would be asked to resign.

As a matter of fact, the officials in the department are confident that "Tama Jim" will be allowed to continue in office until he gets ready to retire to his farm in Iowa.

Secretary Wilson was born in Ayshire, Scotland, August 18, 1835, and came to the United States in 1852, residing in Connecticut for three years and moved to Iowa in 1855. He began life as a farmer in 1861, and shortly thereafter entered politics. He was elected to the Legislature for several terms and served three terms in Congress.

He was regent of the State University from 1870 to 1874, and was director of the agricultural experiment station and professor of agriculture at the Iowa Agricultural College. He was appointed Secretary of Agriculture by President McKinley in 1897, and was reappointed to that office by President Roosevelt and President Taft.
